

Virtual Conference on Chemistry and its Applications

Research and Innovations in Chemical Sciences: Paving the Way Forward

1st to 31st August 2020

How the conference will take place?

- 1) A website for the virtual conference will be active with all required information
- 2) There will be a call for abstracts.
- 3) All topics pertaining to Chemical Sciences will be considered.
- 4) Participant will have to register and submit abstracts online.
- 5) Deadline for submission of abstract is 15th June 2020.
- 6) Abstracts will be peer-reviewed.
- 7) Decision of abstract submission will be conveyed before 1st July 2020.
- 8) Accepted abstracts will be collected in the book of abstracts and circulated in PDF format.
- 9) Participants will require to complete registration procedure and submit their presentations.
- 10) A token registration fee of 50 USD will be charged for a participation with presentation to cover for expenses associated with the organization of the virtual conference.
- 11) A registration fee of 30 USD will be charged for participation without abstract but requires certificate of participation.
- 12) One can participate for free if certificate of participation is not required
- 13) Presentations may be in PDF, PowerPoint or Video.
- 14) Video presentation will be encouraged.
- 15) Virtual conference will start on 1st Aug 2020
- 16) A programme for the conference will be set up.
- 17) There is no need to always be online for the conference.
- 18) A forum (Webwiz) will be used for discussion and interactions of the participants.
- 19) A participant can post a question which will be received by email by all the participants.
- 20) It is responsibility of the corresponding author or co-authors of a presentation to respond to any question.
- 21) Each response will be received by email by all participants
- 22) There will be moderators to monitor the posting of questions and responses.
- 23) Schrödinger day will be marked on 12th Aug 2020.

Virtual Conference on Chemistry and its Applications

Research and Innovations in Chemical Sciences: Paving the Way Forward

1st to 31st August 2020

- 24) A virtual cultural day and closing of the conference will be marked on 31st Aug 2020
- 25) Certificate of participation will be provided to all registered participants.
- 26) Participants will be invited to submit full papers (Deadline 1st Nov 2020)
- 27) Each paper will be peer reviewed.
- 28) All accepted papers will be collected in the book of proceedings to be published by De Gruyter.
- 29) Book of proceedings is expected to be published by end of March 2021
- 30) All corresponding authors will receive a hard copy of the book of proceedings without additional payment. Co-authors may purchase copy of the book from De Gruyter at reduced cost.