

Venue: LT2 New Academic Complex, University of Mauritius
Monday 18th September 2017

Centre for Innovative and Lifelong Learning
Theme: Digital Learning for the Knowledge Society

TIME	VENUE LT2 : New Academic Complex
13.00 – 13.30	Keynote Address : Digital Learning for a knowledge society: Are we ready for what lies ahead? Mr Kiran Bhujun Director, Tertiary Education and Scientific Research Division
13.30 – 13.50	'Research Matters': Penny de la Plain , Sales Manager: Africa John Wiley & Sons South Africa (Pty) Ltd
13.50-14.10	Transformation of the higher educational landscape in the knowledge society: an overview S.Ajaheb-Bahadoor, R.Rajkomar and R.D.Rampersad CILL
14:10-14:30	Exploring the Application of Markerless-based Augmented Reality for Nutritionally Augmenting Fruits – A.Kulpy, G.Bekaroo, D.Roopowa, A.Santokhee, S.Juddoo, Middlesex University
14.30 – 14.45	Discussion (Session Chair: Mrs Dorothy Cooshna-Naik)
14.45 - 15.00	TEA BREAK
15.00 – 15.20	A study of the relationship between gamification of textual learning resources and long-term memory in Grade 6 deaf students Gwendoline Chan, PhD student, UoM
15.20 – 15.40	Use of technology in the teaching of Telugu concepts to create an enthusiastic learning environment-a case study among educators. P. Elliah, G.K Bahadur CILL, UoM
15:40 – 16:00	Investigating augmented reality for teaching science in primary schools P.Hemraj and S.Gunness, CILL, UoM
16.00 – 16.15	Discussion (Session Chair: Mrs Sandhya Gunness)

